

Oji Inari Shrine: #18 from One Hundred Famous Views of Edo

Date

1857

Primary Maker

Utagawa Hiroshige

Medium

Color woodblock print; oban size

Description

Early spring indicated by plum blossoms behind the teahouses; rice paddies and Mount Tsukuba in the distance; Oji Inari Shrine is dedicated to Inari, god of harvest, and is famous for its antiquity; subdued colors and a tranquil atmosphere suggest the coming year will be bountiful.

Dimensions

14 1/4 x 9 1/4 inches (36.2 x 23.5 cm)