

Basic Detail Report

Lotus Bowl

Primary Maker

Unidentified artist

Medium

Porcellanous ceramic with greenish grey glaze

Description

Fox #64-134 Porcellanous lotus bowl on high foot ring, curved side. Decorated on the exterior with deeply incised lotus petals. Possibly late 11th - 14th C. Bowl, curved wall Outside: Incised lotus petals freely drawn Inside: Plain Body color: Buff turning to red where glaze does not cover 2 places in interior, 2 places exterior, uneven drip above footrim. Glaze: Lustrous grey-green celadon with fine and even crackle. Foot description: High base. Rim mostly free of glaze and appears scraped to level. Spur marks: Three large and within base. Of earth? EEK Condition: Excellent

Dimensions

3 × 6 1/2 inches (7.6 × 16.5 cm)