

Basic Detail Report

Globular box with dome-formed lid

Date

15th century

Primary Maker

Unidentified artist

Medium

Stoneware with incised decorations in brown and background in white covered by a thin, transparent glaze

Description

Stoneware with incised and brown-glazed decoration. The sides curve inward toward the foot rim. The lid is surmounted by a raised foliated rim enclosing a brown-glazed rosette and finial in shape of a melon (mangosteen) stem. A band of sawteeth is incised and brown-glazed around the lid's rim. The body is decorated with incised and brown-glazed scrolling and leaf motifs on a greenish-gray glazed ground.

Dimensions

5 x 3 7/8 inches (12.7 x 9.8 cm)