

Basic Detail Report

Baluster vase with inlaid decoration

Date

Choson dynasty; 15th century

Primary Maker

Unidentified artist

Medium

Stoneware with celadon glaze and inlaid slip decoration

Description

Gray-green celadon color. Bulbous shoulders tapering to narrow waist and flared foot. Contracted neck with everted lip. Design of petals in black and white on shoulder; central body decorated with diaper pattern; lower portion decorated with "water" motif (lines imitating flowing water). Repairs in the glaze on lower portion. Two chips in the lip show white. e.y. 11/29/76

Dimensions

11 5/8 × 5 3/4 inches (29.5 × 14.6 cm)