

Basic Detail Report

Woman carrying child on her back

Date

late 19th century

Primary Maker

Tomoaki

Medium

Carved, stained wood; carved ivory; black ink

Description

Carved okimono of a woman carrying a boy on her back. The woman is wearing a kimono with carved chrysanthemum designs, and her hair is elaborately draped and held together with combs. The boy peers over her right shoulder, reaching for a drumstick which she holds in her left hand. His hairstyle is a bowl-cut, shaved at the neck and temples, with separate triangular sideburns below the temples. The woman's white (ivory) tabi socks are visible beneath her kimono.

Dimensions

7 3/4 x 2 7/8 inches (19.7 x 7.3 cm)