

Basic Detail Report

Netsuke in the form of a Noh mask of Okina

Date
19th century

Primary Maker
Gyokko

Medium
Carved wood

Description
Mask of a smiling old man, used for the Noh play performed at New Year's. Eyebrows are carved to represent round cotton pompoms. Spirals on cheeks. Smiling mouth is open, showing his tongue and two teeth. Signature "Gyokko" on back.

Dimensions
1 5/8 x 1 1/4 inches (4.1 x 3.2 cm)