

Basic Detail Report

Yamantaka and consort standing on a bull against a flame aureole

Primary Maker

Unidentified artist

Medium

Bronze

Description

A bronze figure of Yamantaka and consort standing on a bull mounted on top of another female figure, representing the double yam-yum of fornication positions. A large flame is represented behind Yamantaka. The details are quite vivid. The piece is incised with a Hsuan Te, Ming Dynasty reign mark of the 15th c.

Dimensions

Height: 6 3/4 inches (17.1 cm)