Description

Hammered silver covered goblet or chalice. The top features a finial with an amethyst finial and cover of enamel work displaying a swirling image of blue green water with brightly colored fish swimming within. The fish are depicted in vibrant blues, pinks and purples and highlighted in gold. The lid covers the round, bowl which curves down to the stem, supported and surrounded by three small stylized dolphins. The stem then gently curves down to the foot which is decorated with images of fish and flowing waters. The chalice was made for the Guild of Handicraft.
