In the Mountains of the Totomi Province: #38 from Thirty-six Views of Mount Fuji

Date

late 18th–early 19th century

Primary Maker

Katsushika Hokusai

Medium

Color woodblock print

Description

Yoko-e. Mount Fuji is glimpsed through the trestles supporting a large log which two lumbermen are sawing laboriously, one from the top, the other from below. As in No. 56.33 the presence of the Mount lends a degree of majesty to everyday tasks. See info sheets on series and artist, in file.
