Hanging scroll: ink on silk

Description

Large hanging scroll on silk depicting tall mountains with a deep valley with waterfalls, dwelling shaded by tall pine trees. In the foreground a fishing boat with a straw roof getting ready for a fishing trip on the lake. Two lines of calligraphies for the title and three seals and two collectors seals at the right bottom corner. Badly damaged. Ellen Laing suggests that this painting can be compared (in diluted coloring) to those of Lan Ying. Fall 1976.
