

Small triple-gourd shaped vase: Tz'u-chou ware

Medium

Stoneware with white slip painted in brown

Description

Of triple gourd shape, the largest pear-shaped lower bulb surmounted by two small bulbs on the slender, tapered neck, painted in dark brown with three stripes under the lip and with two quickly drawn sprays representing birds on the sidestick layer of chalk-white slip, covered with a clear glaze ending short of the base, three original perforations in the foot.

Dimensions

Height: 4 7/8 inches (12.4 cm)