

Eave hanging (ider-ider) with a scene

from the Ramayana

Medium

Cotton embroidery on cotton cloth

Description

Eave hanging (ider-ider) with a scene from the Ramayana. Hanuman purposefully allows himself to be captured by Indrajit so he can be brought to face and defy Rawana. Sita in captivity raises her sword against Hanuman because she fears he is an enemy. She eventually learns he has come to rescue her. Hanuman uses an uprooted tree as a weapon against a warrior.

Dimensions

10 5/8 x 92 1/8 inches (27 x 234 cm)