

Basic Detail Report

---

Wine Jar

Primary Maker

Unidentified artist

Medium

Tz'u-chou ware stoneware buff-white slip and transparent glaze, painted with reddish-brown pigment

Description

Large wine jar with high, wide bulging shoulders, short vertical neck and wide mouth. Bottom tapers to a foot rim. Buff body with white slip and transparent glaze. Reddish-brown painted designs. Floral bank decorates the shoulders. Bands of parallel lines enclosing one squiggly line decorates the base. One side decorated with a boldly-painted dragon, the other side with a phoenix. These two designs separated on either side by a floral pattern. Fairly good condition. One large crack up the side goes from the rim to the base underfoot; repaired. A.B. 4-77

Dimensions

Height: 12 1/2 inches (31.8 cm)